26 Competition 50: Storytelling Competition Guidelines

Storytelling: Storytelling is an oral, not a visual art. The telling depends on the use of the human voice with all its variations, nuances, modulations, turns of phrase, timing and punch lines. There is no place in storytelling for theatrical movements or costume. Preferably the storyteller should assume a sitting or standing position and movement should be minimal, confined to hand gestures and facial expression.

A story should not be confused with a recitation, a monologue or verse speaking. The idea of the old storyteller sitting by the fire, entertaining his or her neighbours, should be a good guideline as to what storytelling is.

Purpose of the competition: To encourage, among the emerging young population of Comhaltas members, the preservation of the tradition of storytelling & scéalaíocht in our culture and to help in producing a number of storytellers of a standard up to public performance level to complement the excellent standards that have been achieved in the musical, vocal and dancing traditions.

The story: Must be Irish in character, told in a local accent and local style. Competitors who speak with an accent that is not Irish are welcome provided their story is 'Irish in character'. The theme can be humorous, serious, (or a mixture of both), historic or contemporary.

Duration: For the purposes of scheduling, tellers are required to keep their stories to between 4 and 8 minutes (note change for 2020 guidelines) in duration in competitions. Adjudicators may deduct points if competitors run over.

Storytelling Adjudication Criteria

Story: Clear narrative is put across. Characters, places and events are well developed and described with a creative use of language. Recitations, monologues or verse speaking are from a different genre and should therefore be discouraged.

Telling: There is a sense of character and personal style in the telling. Audience interest is kept throughout with natural flow and 'fireside' ease and with humour or emotion where appropriate.

Interpretation and / or originality. New stories and old stories are welcome and can be on any topic or theme and above all, Irish in character.

Key considerations should be:

- Has an original story been well conveyed?
- Has an old story been re-imagined and / or delivered creatively?
- Has a new story been created and told in the traditional Irish style to a good standard?

Length - a minimum of 4 minutes and maximum of 8 minutes

Suggested marking system:

- | | |
|---|-----|
| (a) Confidence / sincerity of storyteller | 20% |
| (b) Accuracy and fluency of speech | 40% |
| (c) Overall impact of story | 40% |

27 Comórtas 51: Scéalaíocht: Treoirlínte do Chomórtas Scéalaíochta

Scéalta a roghnú: Tá réimse leathan i dtraidisiún na scéalaíochta sa Ghaeilge agus ba cheart scéalta a roghnú de réir aois na n-iomaitheoirí. Tá scéalta beaga grinn ann mar a bhíodh le fáil ins na leabhair scoile, scéalta Aesop, scéalta i dtaobh taibhsí agus púcaí, scéalta i dtaobh carachtair áitiúla agus a lán eile a bheadh oiriúnach don aos óg. Is féidir dul ar aghaidh as san go dtí scéalta ón stair, scéalta faoi laochra agus gaiscígh agus suas go dtí na sean scéalta Fiannaíochta ina bhfuil saibhreas iontach Gaeilge agus caint fhileata. Pé saghas scéil a bheadh i gceist, ón scéilín is simplí go dtí an scéal Fiannaíochta is casta, ba cheart dúinn a bheith ag súil le cruinneas gramadaí agus foghraíochta agus ba cheart go dtabharfaí aird ar seo sa chóras moltóireachta.

Moltóireacht:

- | | |
|---|-----|
| (a) Cur i láthair agus dáiríreacht an scéalaí | 20% |
| (b) Soiléire urlabhra agus cruinneas teanga | 40% |
